

2013 SLSCC 13-14's Youth Leadership Development Program

Congratulations!

Surf Life Saving Central Coast is pleased to announce your nomination for the 2013 Youth Leadership Program has been successful. The Youth Leadership Development Program is aimed at youth members within the U13 and U14 Age groups who display potential in becoming a leader and have an interest in improving their surf club.

The 2013 SLSCC Youth Leadership Camp will provide a range of leadership and team-building activities along with topic focussed presentations. The program also incorporates a workshop session aimed at allowing participants to develop events, functions and activities that they believe will increase Youth participation and satisfaction in Surf Lifesaving on the Central Coast.

The program will be run over the weekend of 23 – 24 November 2013 at Broken Bay Sport and Recreation Centre at Broken Bay.
