UMINA SLSC – JUNE 2018

Branch Club of the Year 2018!

Branch Awards of Excellence held at Mingara on 9 June 2018 saw us come away with some great results.

Umina SLSC took top honours being named Branch club of the Year 2018, we are also finalists in the NSW Club of the Year! To be announced in August.

Our GOLD Accreditation in Club Quality Assurance Program was also presented to us (we are only one of 2 clubs in NSW to hold this)

Well done to all of our members who contribute their time and energy to help make our club the best it can be. Congratulations to our other departments and Athletes on many other awards presented on the night.

* Patrol Competition of the Year. (4 random branch administered checks on Patrol performance over the season – Highest points)

* Young Athlete of the Year: Jemma Smith

* Open Athlete of the Year: Jemma Smith

* U19 Team of the Year: Our Under 19 Girls, Jemma Smith, Mollie Murphy, Mimi Henderson, Rachel Wood, Jazmyn Rodwell and Jasmine Darwin

* Coach of the Year: Trevor Gee

Umina SLSC at the NSW Pool Rescue development clinic. Yew!

Nine athletes from Umina SLSC were recently successful in gaining selection to attend NSW Pool rescue development Clinic. All athletes gained valuable experience over the clinic & came away with increased confidence ready for the State pool Champs coming up this weekend at Peninsula Leisure Centre- Woy Woy.

We wish all of our competitors entering the best of luck- If you are available please head down and support your club.

IRB Racing

As the Umina IRB Team gets ready to head off down the coast and race at Aussies, here's a little recap of their results from the 2018 SLSNSW State IRB Championships.

The Umina IRB Team revved their motors and competed in 17 events, racing 35 times over the weekend!! With 13 athletes competing in the black, white and blue, it was exceptional to see 6 of them come home with a state medal!! The medal is very much celebrated as a team medal and the Umina IRB family are thrilled to have achieved such success so early in their racing career!!
